Lingu@network

A new project to involve users in Lingu@net Worldwide

Lingu@net is a website to promote language learning, a multilingual virtual resource centre developed over more than 10 years by language, information and technical experts worldwide.

It offers 5,000 online resources in 100s of languages and is searchable in over 30 languages.

For you, the TEACHER

- Interact with other teachers: comment on your experience in class (face to face or online)
- Suggest new resources to help other colleagues!
- Learn from the experience of the Lingu@net teacher community!

For you, the STUDENT

- Search and find the resources you are looking for in the language you want!
- Help other students by adding resources that you have found useful!
- Join a community of learners across the world!

For you, the LANGUAGE RESOURCE CENTRE

- Have access to a worldwide community of multilingual resources!
- Share your expertise in language teaching!
- Interact with other centres in Europe and beyond!
